

Trainer Profile

Dee Wang

Nationality: American

Languages: English/Cantonese

Dee Wang is a popular trainer/coach for ClarkMorgan. As an American of Chinese descent, Dee has a keen understanding of both Western and Chinese culture. This knowledge enables him to be equally at home working with both senior Western managers and their Chinese counterparts.

Living in Guangzhou and focusing mainly on ClarkMorgan's Southern China based clients, Dee is equally at home delivering training to large groups and one to one coaching. His friendly and approachable style fits the culture of Southern China perfectly and his training has received very positive feedback by trainees and HR alike.

Fluent in both English and Cantonese, Dee has more than twenty years of senior international management experience. He has worked in industries as diverse as Manufacturing, Sales, Food and Beverage and even Concert Event Management.

Dee is a certified leadership trainer and qualified NLP Practitioner and has been providing training in China for more than ten years.
